

SURVIVAL PRELUDE: HOUR ZERO

How did I get to this point? I just don't know.
But I swear this to you girl, I won't let you go.
I know that in just a little over a week we'll have crossed the border while the country was asleep.
We need to keep moving before we hit the snow.
And when the bombs drop we'll have shelter below.
On through the night.

INTO THE NIGHT

Headlights blinding me, the sirens as they wail
I tried braking but to no avail
I swear I didn't see you there, I think I fell asleep
But only for a split second, I've been drinking all week

Into the night running
Trying to get to you
I saw the lights coming
Flashing red and blue
Into the night running
And I can't get through
But I owe my soul and There's nothing I can do.

I saw the devil and she said that I did okay
She said "I'm sorry but it has to be this way"
I just shrugged it off, said the debts all mine
"But you left a witness now go out while there's still time"

HOURGLASS

You've always wanted to leave your mark
But I can't let you rewind
When you've finally achieved something
You've run out of time
I was always wasted by you
I'm no longer on your side
And I have two hands against you
You've got to keep your right

As the hour glass is fading
I will be right here just waiting
If you ever try defeat me
You will regret it, you need me

I cannot be stopped
And I seldom stand still
In me you will get lost
And in me you can fill
You can never have enough
Just keep on watching the clock
And you are forever pressed for me
And you will not be unstuck

You can never defeat me
Let's just face it, you need me.

REAPER

Don't look back just keep driving forward
They will lose us in time
What the hell are we living for yeah?
Just close your eyes
I know they won't catch up
We're gonna be alright
I know it, they won't touch us

I don't fear the reaper
I don't fear anything
Content with what we've done
We will move forward
It's alright, we've time

It's alright baby I am watching over you
You cry "but what can we do?"
There are things that they won't reveal to us
They run the world, they built the world, they own the world
I don't feel it in my soul
But I feel it in my heart, It's worth it still!

They know They know we're in their sight, I feel it in my head
I'll watch over you, I know we'll be fine, yeah in good time.

I just wanna move forward
You can run away but you cannot escape

BLOOD IN UTOPIA

I was in love once and she betrayed me; left me beaten and bruised
Drove me to drink away my misery for a life I did not choose
And you don't know what it's like to see yourself die and know
there's blood in utopia.

And of this dark we created humanity raped, abused and castrated
And out of something good comes something worse
You prepare the noose and I'll get the hearse
And you don't know what it's like to see yourself die and know
there's blood in utopia.

And you don't know what to say; sit back and watch the world decay - you know there's blood in utopia.

Mothers lay your babies to sleep and sing them a lullaby Tell them you're proud of who they became and then softly close their eyes

And you don't know what to say; not like it matters anyway - you know there's blood in utopia!

SAFE

All we ever dreamed of having
Now ashes below our eyes
A Nightmare now actualised
And all we thought was hopeless
Though we survived
But at great loss, with no reason why

And we are, we are safe
But what now, there's nothing more to take?

And all we thought only happened to other families
Now the blame lays on you and me
And we thought we were safe
But what now, there's nothing more to take?
Let it out!

REJECTED REDEMPTIONS

I was always a good man; I always did what I was told
An asset to the community; I never lied, cursed or stole
Well I gave you my everything
And I gave you my word
And I prayed every night to you
I guess you mustn't have heard

I guess it doesn't mean a thing (no longer does it matter)
Because I lay here saying farewell (I write this to you)
My first redemption (This will be my last)
My journey to hell (take my soul as it is)
And I still believed in you (oh trust me I still do)
When you didn't believe in me
What more can I gave? I've given everything!

*I heard your voice on the radio
Prayed to heaven to redeem myself
You've done nothing to help and now I face the noose
I wish I hadn't of bothered - where were you?*

END OF IMPOSSIBLE

You come into my room, clothes unravelled
I'm sweaty and naked on the floor
Come into the room, you've seen the ceiling
It's bloody and it's wanting more
My only wish was to be with you and now I am sober
There were so many things I wanted to do
So many things to show her

The end of impossible is plagued
The distance between us is safe

Come into my room, from the light, far you'll see my house on the hill
There are no lights on, the doors unlocked, but you'll know I'm here still My only wish was to show you a world that you had yet to see
And now I think of all the times
I thought you weren't meant

The end of impossible is plagued
The distance between us is safe

Come into my room, I dare you
Come into my house, I dare you

The end of impossible is plagued
The distance between us is safe
My heart is shattered, yours is raped
I hope you come to get me, today
I've got no bones left for you to break

They drove to your house, a road untravelled
Found no trace of me
The judge, he can't bang the gavel
You got off Scott-free
And now my body just lays there and rots
Because of what you did
And I'm sure you're out there doing it all again
You're a cold-hearted bitch

PRESENTIMENT

There's something coming for you
Don't say I didn't warn you
Don't waste away in slumber
Honey you know your days are numbered
I just wanted to let you know
Your blood would paint the snow
And there at the end of the road
He's looking for you
You can catch him in ascendancy
Like he's the thing that should not be
Who is he working for?
And for whom does he keep score?
I just thought I would let you know
Your blood would paint the snow
And there at the end of the road
He's looking for you
He's sharpening the blade
Getting it ready for the sacrifice
He needs just one more person
Will it be you? or will it be you!?

CATACLYSM IN WINTER

He should have known better
She shouldn't have been so surprised
The signs were there yet I Found myself none the wiser
He was on top of it all
And she just sat there naïve
They'd seen things that you just wouldn't believe Bodies laying all around, cities destroyed
Nations burning, armies deployed

We will hide from the war
Stop at nothing at all
This I swear to you
If they come near I will fight
Give you all my supplies
I will happily die for you

No one paid attention to the warnings broadcast on the television
Most just took it as a bluff, until they evacuated the prisons Mothers still in mourning from the casualties week prior Supermarket shelves lay empty with clean water dire
Children sent to the army and families torn apart
If only they knew that the war had yet to start

The warning grew louder, you could even hear them underground
Gunshots and screaming, but it seemed like not a single sound
The internet disconnected, and no mobile phone reception
They just sat their waiting in their own personal detention
But then a came a visitor to the tiny rooftop window
His face covered in blood and the whitest of snow
