

GERÖLY VIRTUAL TRIO

NOT THE ORIGINAL MOTION PICTURE SOUNDTRACK

HUNNIA RECORDS

Based on the music of the Seven Samurai movie by Akira Kurosawa (composer: Fumio Hayasaka), we came to a milieu where less sound and simple melodic world create the right tension and concentration. We have explored the Bushido, a system of strict norms that influence the lifestyle of samurai, with its Confucian and Buddhist elements, emphasizing the importance of honour, simplicity, loyalty, and practicing martial arts. It's not so difficult to find similarities between the above ethical guidelines and the unwritten rules of improvising musicians. The content here exists not in morality, but in the form of action, yet it is permeated by a spiritual atmosphere that eagerly joins the Kurosawa samurai.
