FRIENDS TALK

ArpiShow was founded in 2017 by clarinet-saxophone artist Árpád Dennert with the aim of providing the kind of easily accessible, yet artistically high-quality performance of traditional jazz and swing music which he loves and which is popular with the audience.

For more than 15 years, Árpád Dennert has been a significant representative of the Hungarian jazz scene, having worked with countless Hungarian and foreign stars as a member of a wide variety of ensembles. He has been a regular performer at the Palace of Arts since its opening, and has been a member of the Budapest Jazz Orchestra for ten years and of Studio 11 for four years. For years he has been performing at renowned festivals both at home and abroad - Germany, Australia, China, Turkey, France, Austria, Romania, Slovakia, Qatar, Sweden, the Netherlands and Denmark.

His current ensembles include Benkó Dixieland Band, Papajazz, Tamás Béneyi and the Gramophonia Hot Jazz Orchestra, Bjc Big Band and ArpiShow. He also works as a sideman in several other ensembles.

His orchestral partners are some of the best Hungarian early jazz artists, all of them highly skilled and experienced, process with whom the reative reaches the highest level.

Eszter Lukács - vocals

Iván Nagy - piano

Márton Soós - double bass

Balázs Cseh – drums

Attila Korb - guitar, trumpet

In the three years of its existence, the Arpishow orchestra has had several significant and successful concerts. In the year of its foundation, it was one of the participants of the Palace of Arts' 20 August event series, it is a regular performer at international swing dance events, where it has gained great popularity among dancers, and regularly gives club concerts in Budapest.
